

Greetings from the Vice-Chancellor

Prof. Dr. M. Krishnan M.Sc., Ph.D.

I'm very glad to note that many research articles were presented and discussed in detail in the International Conference on Human Praxis and Modern Configuration through Literature conducted by our Department of English and Comparative Literature. I'm also glad to note that selected papers presented in the International Conference are compiled and are now being published for the benefit of scholars around the world. Human Praxis in all aspects of life and society is a very important topic for discussion and is also a matter of great concern. Creative writers have focused on various aspects of Human Praxis around the world including India in their creative works. Such discussions create in us great concern for our society and values, and such discussions will help us to improve the social, economic and psychological condition of people and communities around us.

Our Department of English and Comparative Literature is well-known for their continued significant involvement in the study of literature from around the world and compare these literatures with our own great traditional and modern literary works. I wish continued great success for the activities of Department of English and Comparative Literature under the leadership of Prof. Dr. S. Chelliah, M.A., Ph.D., D.Litt. My greetings and thanks are due to all the participants of the

Greetings from the Registrar

Prof. N. Sankar, Ph.D.,

I am greatly impressed by the success of the International Conference on Human Praxis and Modern Configuration through Literature conducted by our Department of English and Comparative Literature. Both the academic and administrative staff of the Department worked hard to make the conference a notable success.

I am glad to note that the papers presented in the conference are now compiled and published in several volumes. Select papers presented in the conference are now published for the benefit of scholars both in India and abroad. We always need to be concerned about the marginality that prevails in our societies in several forms. Creative writers have described such marginality in so many heart-rending stories. Such creative works instigate in us a keen desire to seek suitable changes, and research on such creative works enable our young scholars to look forward to a future wherein such social, economic and psychological concerns are positively minimized.

My greetings and thanks to all who participated in the conference organized under the dynamic leadership of Prof. Dr. S. Chelliah, M.A., Ph.D., D.Litt. I am sure that the Department of English and Comparative Literature will continue to have such significant conferences in the future also.

together and published. There are more than seventy articles in this compilation, dealing with a range of themes Human Praxis and Modern Configuration depicted in the works of several leading creative authors from around the world, including creative works written by Indian writers.

My grateful thanks are due to the Vice-Chancellor Prof. Dr. M. Krishnan, M.Sc., Ph.D. and the Registrar Prof. Dr. N. Sankar, Ph.D. for their encouragement and support in all the activities of the Department of English and Comparative Literature. I am grateful for the excellent cooperation I received from the academic and administrative staff of the Department of English and Comparative Literature. Research Scholars and students of the Department actively participated in all the deliberations of the Conference. The participants came from many Colleges and Universities and they were very glad to exchange their ideas with one another. It has been a great encouraging experience for all.

We hope that this volume of Selected Papers from the International Conference Human Praxis and Modern Configuration through Literature will help further research on various dimensions of society and all individuals in relation to social strata, religion, regional variations, gender issues, economic and psychological and health care institutions, etc. in the days to come.
